

Dear Commissioners:

I am very happy that some of you are holding more public hearings on broadcast ownership. I am already extremely concerned about the threat that our concentrated, mega-corporation-dominated media poses to our democracy. I urge you to continue to hold more hearings and to extend the public comment deadline. Many thanks to those of you who are already working to do so.

Sincerely,
David Kovsky